

RAMSAY MACDONALD HAILED AS NEW PREMIER

Natural Resources Parley Jan. 3

Prem. King
Willing That Negotiations
Be Continued

Premier Greenfield Gets a Wire from Liberal Chairman Arranging Date—
Session of Legislature in Early Part of January Is Improbable

As was forecasted in The Bulletin this year, it is highly improbable that a session of the legislature will be assembled before the latter part of January or the first of February next.

Premier Greenfield said last night that he received Saturday evening a message from Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in which the Prime Minister suggested January 3rd as a date for an inter-governmental conference on the natural resources question. The Alberta premier stated that this date is satisfactory and he will go East shortly for the meeting. He was uncertain as to what other members of the cabinet, if any, would accompany him. It is unlikely that Attorney-General Brown will be able to make the trip.

Postponed Meeting
The question of transfer of the natural resources of Alberta, which was to have been discussed at a meeting of the premiers, was postponed at the request of Premier Greenfield who, at that time, became ill. The meeting was rescheduled with Aaron Sapiro, Premier Macdonald, King and others after the first major conference in London and has only recently returned to the agenda. The meeting could be arranged earlier. Presumably the Ottawa government is unwilling to postpone the meeting and the first part of January is the time when the premiers will resume the discussion of the resources inter-

Where Will They Start?
Last spring the Liberal government of Alberta, which was in the middle of negotiations to transfer the resources with a continuation of the federal government, was overruled by the Alberta government, which was represented by Premier Greenfield and Attorney-General Gowan, who refused to reimburse for lands amounting to 100,000 square miles outside the boundaries of the provinces. In addition to the loss of over of the resources, the Alberta government is not the last offer of Ottawa is now viewed much favorably. Premier Greenfield preferred not to say.

Coolidge Announces His Candidacy for Presidency

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Announcement of the candidacy of President Coolidge for the Republican nomination for president in 1924, was made tonight by Frank W. Stern, of Boston, who is known as the president's personal friend.

William B. Brewster, national committeeman for Massachusetts, and political friend of Mr. Coolidge, it was said, "will act as the president's personal representative" in the campaign.

The announcement was made by Mr. Stern through a statement which was given out by James B. Reynolds, former secretary of the Republican national committee, who directed the campaign for Mr. Coolidge in 1922.

"Forty-Nine" Headed Poll for President by a Sizable Majority

The first draft of the new liquor act will probably be in the hands of the provincial government today.

Attorney-General J. E. Brownlee, when questioned by The Bulletin last night said that H. H. Parlee, who has been instrumental in framing the legislation for government control, had been losing no time in assembling the preliminary sketch of the measure and it would likely be submitted to the cabinet for the official statement of the first of this week.

Completed Draft

"Will the initial draft be merely a sketch of the measure or will it contain a word or two of the details of the bill," the attorney general asked.

Mr. Parlee, who deserves legal advice is not available to him as he is his own solicitor. The Bulletin agrees with the general view that legal advice is worth what it costs, or as Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes once said, "the breath of an eagle."

The members of the executive committee chosen were as follows:

W. J. Hill, G. C. Seelwright, W. E. Price, G. W. F. Price, J. E. Knott and C. B. Reinhard.

GOES TO PEN

Frances Denton is only 15. Yet she must serve 15 years in the penitentiary. She was convicted of a string of robberies, but the law says she is too young to be tried for the crimes. The law did not permit her to be tried for more lenient sentences than her youth.

EFFORTS TO QUASH
WARRANT FAILS
IN APPEAL COURT

Judge Johnson has handed down in Rex vs. Burdick, a motion to quash the warrant for arrest and to dismiss the indictment, a decision that was expected. At the resumption of the city police court after a noon adjournment it was the case was in progress and the court was adjourned. P. H. Morrison, H. A. Martin, K.C., served notice of certiorari. Such papers as were in the hands of the court were remitted and the appeal court was told that the records were in the hands of the police division. There A. E. Pepple argued for the defendant and A. M. Morrison for the crown.

The appeal court could see nothing objectionable in the form of the warrant or in the manner in which the magistrate on that he had been fully informed. Margaret Burdick did on Nov. 18th self-surrendered to the police.

The magistrate's jurisdiction had to do with the matter of the warrant. They said that the warrant was unnecessary. The court was unrepresented. The magistrate's jurisdiction was concerned with the matter of the warrant.

"The court was adjourned to the police court at 12:30 pending the return of the records from the supreme court."

Constant Headaches
and Dizziness

It is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time, and in nine cases out of ten the headaches are due to some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels.

Undoubtedly the cause must be removed, and the permanent relief may be had.

Burdick Blood Bitters remove the cause of the headaches, as it acts as a tonic to the liver, strengthens, purifies and regulates the whole system.

Mr. Peter Curran, 27, Montreal St., Sydney, N.S., writes: "I have been taking Burdick Blood Bitters with constant headache and dizziness. After trying several remedies, Burdick Blood Bitters was recommended."

"B.B. did me a world of good and I cannot praise this remedy enough."

Heavy Carry-Over Likely
At Head of the Lakes When Navigation Closes Dec. 12

WINNIPEG, Dec. 8—An eas-when navigation closes, probably when navigation closes, probably local wheat market throughout the day's session with trade locally features.

Values were ranging fractionally higher, with trade generally featureless. The volume was confined to spreading business, selling December and buying May around 55 cents difference. Local sentiment was bearish, and the close showed a loss of 1/4 cent.

A substantial carry-over is expected at the head of the lakes ing the first three months of the crop year 2,914,167 bushels. While this year it has received 4,158,250 bushels.
